

AFSCME LOCAL 517
EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING MINUTES
4/24/2017

In attendance: Lynne Freezy, Angie Plumbo, Jane Ball, Robbin Rosén, Barb Christianson, Jody Johnson, Kristie Campeau-Perlock.

Meeting called to order 12:05 p.m.

1. Barb talked about the bank account:

- Checked with Lake Elmo Bank about waiving the fees for getting checks back.
 - Our articles of incorporation say we need copies of checks.
 - Need proof that we're a non-profit even with an EIN #.
 - Lake Elmo will charge $5.
- Eagle Valley Bank used to give us copies.
- Barb to call City and County Credit Union:
 - See if there's a bank in Stillwater.
 - Lower fees.
- Change credit card – through U.S. Bank.
 - Move to the new bank.
 - Kristie would authorize payments.

2. At General Membership Meeting talked about staff with a capped range adjustment:

- We bargained across the board.
- Tentative meeting scheduled with HR on May 9 to talk about the ten (+/-) of staff that this affects.

3. Organizing:

- No NEO (New Employee Orientation) presence anymore.
- We can do individual meetings with new employees on our own time or organize group lunches.
 - Members can help orientate new employees to the union too.
- Request to come up with a reference sheet for talking to new employees about the union.
 - Highlight frequently asked questions.
 - Cost difference between fair share and member rates, etc.
 - Talk to John.

4. Other business:

- Question on how to find seniority lists on WashNet:
 - Angie to post on bulletin board.
- Christy H's open Council 5 E-Board position:
 - Nate Arthur is interested. He nominated himself.

- He's requesting a letter of recommendation from us; we approved.
- John isn't here to swear in the rest of the E-Board.
- Christy H's open E-Board position:
 - Adam Snegosky was approached to fill our E-Board VP position but turned it down; he's on some committees already.
 - Angie approached to fill the position and accepted.
- Grievances – Jody J. has none.
- Talk on in house Council field reps.:
 - Call center (MAC).
 - Frees up some of John's time.
 - This is where Christy Harriman works now.

Meeting adjourned at 12:57 p.m.
